

Ana Carpio Espinosa

PhD Studentin

Born in Quito (Ecuador). Studied Veterinary Medicine and Zootechnics in Quito.

In 2019 I received the Brazil scholarships program PAEC OEA-GCUB by academic merit and studied the Master's Degree in Veterinary Sciences in Lavras (Minas Gerais), where I developed my interested about animal pathology research.

In 2022 I received the Swiss government Excellence Scholarship (FCS/ESKAS) and since September I started my PhD at the University of Bern.

You learn by doing new things, and when you study abroad everything is new.